

University of the District of Columbia
David A. Clarke School of Law

Equal Justice Works Summer Job Fair

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2007
WINDOW LOUNGE - BUILDING 38
NOON - 2:00 PM

First-year students who work full-time over the summer for a qualifying non-profit, government office or judge may receive a $2500.00 stipend from the law school through our Equal Justice Works Summer Public Interest Fellowship Program. (Second-year students may be eligible, depending on funding).

Representatives from many organizations will be available to talk about summer placements. Upper-class students who are looking for internships and post-graduation jobs should also attend.

Bring your resumes and questions. Rules for the Summer 2007 fellowship program will be distributed prior to the fair.

For resume reviews and other questions, contact Dena Bauman, Career Service Director.