

JUDICIAL INTERNSHIPS,
JUDICIAL CLERKSHIPS
HOW TO FIND THEM,
HOW TO SUCCEED AT Them

Tuesday, February 13, 2007
Room 202, Building 39
12:15 - 1:30 pm

Lunch will be provided

DC Superior Court Magistrate Judge Karen Howze

Professor William Robinson, UDC-DCSL School of Law

Judicial internships and post-graduate clerkships are one of the most valuable experiences that a law student can have!

Our speakers will describe the critical legal skills and knowledge that can be obtained by working for the judiciary, how to find openings, what judges are looking for in applicants, and answer your questions.